

OPPORTUNITIES TO LEARN AND GROW: ANTIRACISM ACTION 10/23

READ	SEE	DO	REFLECT	CULTURE
How to Build Relationships Across Difference	She Inspires Me: Nine Latina Photographers and the Women Who Inspire Them / Ella Me Inspira: Nueve Fotógrafas Latinas y las Mujeres que las Inspiran (Oct. 31-Dec. 6)	Choice Points (pg. 2) (Facilitating meetings) “How to be an Active Ally in the Workspace” (free, Oct. 28 1:00 p.m.) Racial Equity From a Trauma Informed Perspective TONIGHT (5:30-7, $10)	Wheel of Power and Privilege (Image)	San Rafael’s 32nd Dia de los Muertos See Once Upon a River Myth of a Colorblind France (stream at home) from Smith Raphael Theater
	On Exhibit in person: Thu-Sun, 11:00 am – 5:00 pm Virtual Artist Reception and Artist Talks: Sunday, November 1, 3:00 pm	Use Choice Points to advance racial equity in meetings and in your sphere. Or, register for a conversation about allyship or a workshop on trauma-informed race equity.	What are some experiences or identities that are central to who you are? How do you feel when they are ignored or “not seen”?	How can we begin to normalize cultural practices that are not related to white-dominant culture?